BEVIDA

The Opponent opposes the above trademark Application on the grounds of:

1. absolute grounds for refusal relying on Section 35(1)(c) of the Trade Marks Act of Belize Chapter 257, R.E. 2000, (the Act) in that the mark BEVIDA is identical in pronunciation and spelling to the Spanish word BEBIDA, which means “drink” or “beverage”. It is not disputed that “V” and “B” in Spanish sound the same. Since the Application seeks to cover “fruit juice, non-alcoholic beverage” in Class 32 and “non-alcoholic energy drinks, sparkling fruit wine” in Class 33, the Opponent submits that the mark consists exclusively of the indication of the kind of goods being produced by the Applicant (namely, drinks and beverages) based on the similarity in pronunciation and spelling to the Spanish word BEBIDA.
2. Opponent opposes the mark based on absolute grounds for refusal relying on Section 35(1)(b) of the Act, in that the mark BEVIDA is devoid of any distinctive character. The word “BEVIDA” is inherently descriptive for such consumable products as drinks and beverages based on the Spanish translation “BEBIDA” as explained in 1 above. The characteristics of the Applicant’s Mark are intrinsic to the products associated with drinks and beverages because of this descriptive element.
3. Opposition, founded by Section 16 of the Act, is based on the fact that the Opponent’s famous and known mark by similar name, BELVITA, though not registered in Belize will result in the likelihood of confusion and or of association based on the provisions of Article 6bis of the Paris Convention 1883 which is applicable in Belize whether or not any Opponent business of goodwill exists in Belize the provisions of which supersede the Act by virtue of the Act itself. This famous and known mark has also been filed in multiple Latin American & Caribbean countries (Chile, Argentina, Bolivia, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Jamaica, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Trinidad & Tobago, Uruguay, and Venezuela) all in multiple classes.
4. Further, the applicant is a local company not in good standing with the Companies Registry, and as such, in violation of the Laws of Belize and accordingly has no legal standing to apply for registration or even reply to Opposition Proceedings.

The Applicant is required to submit a response to this notice, to the Registrar, no later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice.

DATED this 30th day of September, 2009.
